The dance of the planets is part of a larger rhythm, the rhythm of Life itself. By listening to the music of the spheres, we can move through life in greater alignment with nature, God, and our own life's flow. The right timing can make all of the difference in the world between successful efforts and ones fraught with obstacles.

A transit occurs when a planet overhead forms a specific angle to a planet in your birth chart. We focus on the outer five planets: Jupiter, Saturn, Uranus, Neptune, and Pluto, because their movements are slowest, and represent the strongest and most important cycles.

Here are some basic rules that may help you to use this report more fully:

A. The longer the time period between the transit's beginning date and its peak date, the stronger the transit is likely to be.

B. Transits are most active between the beginning date and the peak date, and usually subside quickly thereafter. If an actual event (represented by the transit) is to happen, it will most likely occur within two days of the peak date.

C. The further away (from Earth) the transiting planet is, the stronger the transit. So Pluto transits are strongest, then Neptune, then Uranus, then Saturn, and then Jupiter (the mildest).

D. Conjunctions are the most powerful of angles, followed by oppositions, then squares. Semi-squares and sesquares are not as strong. Trines and sextiles are easy, creative times.

E. The transits by Uranus, Neptune, and Pluto occur several times over a 1½ to 2½ year period. Each "swing" lasts about one to two months. Usually one swing is stronger than the any of the others. Some swings immediately follow the preceding one, so that after the first peak date, there is no ending date, just the next beginning date. These can be powerful times.

May this report assist you in your unfoldment, and help you to understand and utilize your life's rhythms more fully.

May 20, 2010 (May 14, 2010 to May 26, 2010)

Your imagination and openness are enhanced now, but remember to keep your feet on the ground. Stay conscious of how distractible and impressionable you are. And avoid pursuits that might further unground you, such as overdoing drugs, sex, food, etc., and try to stay focused on the tasks at hand. (At the same time, try not to schedule too much detail work right now.)

You might be overly trusting and overly optimistic, too, during this cycle, so make important decisions very carefully and with the help of outside guidance from those you can rely upon.

By all means provide yourself with creative outlets and enjoy letting go more.

May 22, 2010 (Jan 18, 2010 to Jul 2, 2010)

Doors may open karmically, either literally in new opportunities or new people in your life, or perceptually in getting a better sense of why you are here and where you are (to be) heading. The decisions that you make at this time can truly further your soul's progress. Move towards what makes you more whole and reap the fruits of this cycle.

This is also a time when you can work on freeing yourself of patterns that you feel locked into (e.g. addictions, obsessions, attachments). You can gain the clarity to recognize what habits are running you, and how to regain control.

May 31, 2010 (May 4, 2010 to Jun 26, 2010)

♃ ♁ ♃ (no partile)

Creative disillusionment. This is the time to look at the ways you overidealize life, escape from reality, or paint yourself or others too rosily. It's time to get real and throw out the dreams, illusions, and habits that no longer serve you, and prepare to manifest the dreams you really want to happen. Remember, you can only be disillusioned if you've already been unrealistic and/or embellishing reality.

This is a bad time to overindulge in alcohol, drugs, or other addictions as they might catch up with you via health issues, relationship problems, or poor decision-making. Instead, use this time to stay grounded, e.g. by gardening, talking with very practical friends about your life choices, etc.

The highest use of this transit is to bring your most creative visions into manifestation by doing the necessary work.

Jun 15, 2010 (Jun 7, 2010 to Jun 26, 2010)

Active mind time. Rather than filling this period with chatter, anxieties, or over-thinking, apply your mind constructively to the tasks at hand. Look at what thoughts and words are superficial, and which ones really count. Practice communicating more carefully, and noticing how your attitudes affect everything.

If you have a tendency not to speak enough, this transit could assist you in becoming able to communicate more. Allow its energies to support you in expressing yourself.

Jul 4, 2010 (Jun 21, 2010 to Aug 24, 2010)

♃ ♁ As

This can be a time of expansion, joy, and openness, provided that you don't overdo, get too egocentric, or over-optimistic. In other words, be careful to stay realistic and moderate in moving forward towards goals.

When Jupiter is opposed to the Ascendant, it opens doors to relationship. Whether to a partner or close friend, you can become more deeply connected and see the wisdom of the relationship, have good talks, and grow closer.

Jul 6, 2010 (Jun 4, 2010 to Aug 6, 2010)

♃ □ ♃ (no partile)

This time may find you feeling rebellious, nervous, or contrary; so monitor your attitude and remember to slow down when you need to. You may actually have fine insights and breakthroughs during this time, provided that you "keep your wiring cool" and take the time to really hear what life (and other people) are telling you. Wake up to your mental biases and misperceptions and see things more clearly.

It is time to give up old ideas and the ways of thinking that have kept you in mental ruts. Open your mind to new possibilities, talk and think more deeply, and free yourself from old preconceptions. Listen well, both to your inner voice and to others, and you will learn much now.

What a wonderful time to express your uniqueness more fully. You'll both feel safer to reveal your individuality and better at it too. Let yourself fully accept and appreciate your differentness from others and others will too.

This cycle can boost your inventiveness and originality, and support you in "thinking out of the box." Take on new goals, or address old challenges in new ways now.

Jul 13, 2010 (Jun 26, 2010 to Aug 19, 2010)

♃ □ Mc

You may feel that you want to be more than you are right now. Instead of dwelling on frustrations, begin to look towards how you can realize your dreams and express your gifts and abilities more fully. This may not be the time to move forwards too quickly, or plan too big. Keep your life in perspective.

Aug 1, 2010 (Jun 20, 2010 to Dec 1, 2010)

♃ ♁ Mc

It's time to purge old pictures, rules, and expectations about who you "should" be in your career and as an authority. You can claim much more of your personal power and giftedness by throwing out criticisms and belittlings you took in from others and realizing your true worth. If you actually need to make changes in your career or life path now, do it with care and self respect, and certainly don't sell yourself short.

Aug 2, 2010 (Jun 26, 2010 to Aug 19, 2010)

♃ □ Mc

Aug 3, 2010 (Jun 26, 2010 to Aug 19, 2010)

This astrological influence (Jup Sxtil Ura) also occurred on Jul 12, 2010 (peak date). Please refer to this date.

Aug 4, 2010 (Jul 24, 2010 to Aug 14, 2010)

Be careful not to dwell on fears, doubts, or negative thoughts at this time. While you are predisposed to being serious now, don't let yourself become somber or pessimistic or overly critical of yourself or others. Give yourself reasons to laugh, and distract your mind when it gets too heavy.

Your mind can, on the other hand, be very focused, discriminating, grounded, and rigorous during this transit. So apply yourself to tasks at hand, and towards "cleaning up your act", instead of sitting around focusing on what's wrong with everything. In doing so, you can make this a very productive time.

Since Saturn slows things down, make sure you give yourself enough time to think things through, without getting bogged down in too many details or preparations.

Aug 11, 2010 (Jun 21, 2010 to Aug 24, 2010)

♃ ♀ As

This astrological influence (Jup Oppos Asc) also occurred on Jul 4, 2010 (peak date). Please refer to this date.

Aug 20, 2010 (Aug 10, 2010 to Aug 29, 2010)

♃ ♂ As

Be conscious of not giving others or especially yourself too hard a time now. The urge to "get your act together" is very strong, but don't use it as a whip. Prioritize and focus, without becoming cold or narrow, and you'll be using your energies wisely. Respect yourself (and others) for what has been achieved, and build on past successes.

You need to move forward slowly during this transit, with careful planning and working within Universal and human laws. Be careful about not falling prey to discouragement if delays, setbacks, or obstacles appear, or if you feel unsupported or unrecognized. This cycle is a very important one for getting you to pay attention to what is really important to you, and what is not.

Because this cycle particularly affects your body, self-image, and career, you need to be mindful about how you treat yourself and your body, and to learn from any career obstacles or setbacks that appear in your path.

Aug 24, 2010 (Aug 14, 2010 to Sep 1, 2010)

The time of the focused innovator. Here you can discipline and apply your unique perspectives and creative insights much more easily. You can tame the unbridled parts of yourself and realize that your personal freedom can be realized within your present framework.

Aug 24, 2010 (Aug 15, 2010 to Sep 2, 2010)

If your relationship with your career, parents, or authorities seems difficult right now, calm down and get in touch with what you really need. Develop and trust your own inner authority more, instead of giving away your power to others. Bide your time, and your dissatisfactions will lead to insights about the changes you need to make and how to make them. Aim towards your future, instead of dwelling on what doesn't work in your life.

Aug 30, 2010 (Aug 19, 2010 to Sep 7, 2010)

This astrological influence (Jup Sqr Mer) also occurred on Jun 15, 2010 (peak date). Please refer to this date.

Sep 7, 2010 (Aug 30, 2010 to Sep 16, 2010)

You can focus and harness your intensity, passions, and power now, and therefore accomplish a great deal. Specifically, you can see that you have "punch" and utilize it to reach people more deeply or to resolve problems. This may even allow you to graduate to new levels of personal power and effectiveness, if you take the opportunity to apply yourself right now.

Sep 13, 2010 (Jul 8, 2010 to Nov 16, 2010)

♁ □ As

This can be one of the most powerful periods of your life. It's time for deep changes in your identity, primary relationship, career, and home. Let whatever endings need to take place occur, so that great beginnings may come. Bring the past to a close, eliminating old attachments, ideas, and patterns that have outlived their usefulness. Conserve your energies and nurture yourself, and the waves of transformation will be much easier to ride. Welcome to your rebirth.

The Pluto Square Ascendant affects the home and career more, often indicating relocation or career changes, as well as working to become free of the negative influences of parents (both past and present influences). It encourages the person to recover their personal authority, and their sense of power and value, as well as to shape their personal lives to better suit their needs.

Sep 15, 2010 (Jul 8, 2010 to Nov 16, 2010)

♁ □ As

This astrological influence (Plu Sqr Asc) also occurred on Sep 13, 2010 (peak date). Please refer to this date.

Sep 28, 2010 (Sep 21, 2010 to Oct 6, 2010)

This astrological influence (Jup Oppos Nep) also occurred on May 20, 2010 (peak date). Please refer to this date.

Sep 29, 2010 (Sep 21, 2010 to Oct 7, 2010)

During this contractive phase, you can't expand and diversify as you might like to. Work with the cycle, and prune excessive activities and realistically assess what you can and cannot do. If you've been overoptimistic, this cycle will help you to be more realistic. If you've avoided taking on responsibilities that you are capable of, now you may be reminded of them. Realize that with the right approach, you can actually be both solid and open now.

Oct 4, 2010 (Sep 26, 2010 to Oct 12, 2010)

You are gifted now with excellent focus, purposefulness, and intention. You can apply your energies more easily toward achieving whatever goals you set for yourself. Just remember not to get too narrow in your focus nor too pragmatic and serious. After all, enjoying the process is as important as reaching success.

Your understanding of how things work is heightened here, and you will be able to operate effectively within any limitations or restrictions you encounter.

Oct 23, 2010 (Sep 26, 2010 to Feb 10, 2011)

This cycle challenges you to come down to Earth and live authentically and productively. You may have had many ideas and visions that you have never implemented, and this time asks you to "clean house" of the impractical ones, and choose to implement the dreams that mean the most to you.

If you have been wishy-washy or too accommodating with others, now is the time to get more in touch with your own views and needs, and to make them clear to others.

"Get real" might be a good slogan for this cycle. Find out who you are, and what your aspirations are, and manifest them in your life.

Oct 26, 2010 (Jun 20, 2010 to Dec 1, 2010)

Nov 19, 2010 (Nov 6, 2010 to Dec 1, 2010)

♃ △ ♃ (no partile)

Time for the inner child to come out and play. Discover the value of your more spontaneous and subjective sides, and provide many positive outlets for your nurturing and playful energies. Let go of insecurities and make yourself realize the safety that's truly there.

Since it is easier and safer right now to get in touch with your needs, examine whether your life is really meeting them, and make constructive changes that give you more fulfillment.

♃ Δ ♃

Now you can express your power, intensity, and depth with greater ease, responsiveness, and humor. Emerge from your self restraints and trust that your abilities will carry you through.

Take on challenges that encourage you to rise to the occasion, like teaching a class, addressing problem areas, or eliminating things that have outlived their usefulness.

If you have been afraid to express your power and impact on others, this will be a safe and easier time to stretch to embody and own your sovereignty.

Feb 28, 2011 (Feb 23, 2011 to Mar 4, 2011)

ㄱ □ ㄱ

You may feel like overextending yourself in several areas of life right now. While you can probably handle quite a bit, and should do so, be conscious of planning too big projects, or being too optimistic. With enough self-restraint, you can express yourself capably, warmly, and wisely.

This cycle may also incline you to overdo, over-think, overindulge, over-spend, etc. so be careful to moderate your behavior. You might also be overly trusting of others and of situations, so try to make careful assessments and verify them with those you can trust.

Mar 2, 2011 (Feb 26, 2011 to Mar 6, 2011)

ㄱ ✕ ㄱ

Now is the time to face the strict side of yourself and teach it to laugh. You can really loosen up now, with lasting results, if you pay attention to the differences you feel being more positive and relaxed, and make them a part of you. You are both productive and flexible during this cycle.

This is a wonderful opportunity to understand the roots of your fears, doubts, and sorrows and to release them, because you both feel safer and more able to look within.

You can also use this cycle to make good choices, using a balance of faith and practicality. In other words, this is a time to both let go of old restrictive inhibitions and to move forward towards important goals with both groundedness and trust.

Apr 2, 2011 (Mar 15, 2011 to Apr 20, 2011)

ㄹ □ ㄹ

This time may find you feeling rebellious, nervous, or contrary; so monitor your attitude and remember to slow down when you need to. You may actually have fine insights and breakthroughs during this time, provided that you "keep your wiring cool" and take the time to really hear what life (and other people) are telling you. Wake up to your mental biases and misperceptions and see things more clearly.

It is time to give up old ideas and the ways of thinking that have kept you in mental ruts. Open your mind to new possibilities, talk and think more deeply, and free yourself from old preconceptions. Listen well, both to your inner voice and to others, and you will learn much now.

Apr 9, 2011 (Feb 6, 2011 to Jun 13, 2011)

ㄹ ㄹ ㄱ (no partile)

If you have been busy overworking or giving too much to others, it's time to change your behavior. If your head has been in the clouds, with great schemes never to be made manifest, it's time to come to Earth. This is a time to prune your excesses, and at the same time to see the ways in which you really are making a valuable contribution to others. Focus your life, on what's important, and you'll be able to accomplish a great deal at this time.

This is the moment to breakthrough to the truth, to look within and find the inner voice of wisdom, and cleave to it. Break free of complacencies that keep you from expressing your natural authority and your own understandings. Know what you know and live by it.

Apr 14, 2011 (Apr 10, 2011 to Apr 18, 2011)

Now you can trust yourself more to ask for what you want, take what you need, and move out towards your goals. You'll find it easier to assert yourself more fully in ways that really work for others as well as yourself, and have better timing, too.

In other words, this is a great time to initiate projects, important conversations, and activities that extend your world (e.g. like travel). Your approach is likely to be better accepted, and things are more likely to fall into place.

You may feel very generous, optimistic, compassionate, and accommodating, but remember not to give too much, nor to paint things too rosy. By all means be kind to others, but don't forget yourself in the bargain. A great time for artistic, social, and creative ideas and expression.

This can be a time of good fortune. You are likely to get along with others, say things in just the right way, and be able to smooth the social waters. With a little effort, you will also find it easier to see where in your life you should be saying "yes" and where you should be saying "no".

With this cycle, you may experience a frustration at not being able to fully express your core self, either because of inner or outer obstacles. Be patient with yourself, and with others, and you will find a way to become yourself in a deeper way.

You might feel either too self-important or too neglected during this transit. Don't let either your need for attention nor your wish to have your demands met run away with you.

Use the expanded self-consciousness that this transit triggers to look at what you really want to express and who you want to be.

May 2, 2011 (Apr 12, 2011 to May 26, 2011)

♃ ♉ As

Wake up! It's time to redefine your life, stretch your limits, and express your individual gifts and needs. (But be sure to respect others' differences too.)

During the opposition to the Ascendant, changes are most likely to occur in your self-image and approach to life, and in your primary relationship(s). It's important to allow individuation to take place, both changes in your sense of self, and in how you show up in your relationship.

Be careful about being too hasty, rebellious, or uncooperative now. Make the changes you wish to with forethought. You can really revitalize your life now, by allowing yourself to do many of the things you used to stop yourself from doing. It's time for evolution in your life.

May 2, 2011 (Apr 28, 2011 to May 7, 2011)

ㄷ □ ㄹ

Your needs and feelings and sensitivities are amplified at this time. Gently care for and nurture yourself without becoming childish or lost in your reactions. Nurturing others or projects is an excellent outlet for your energies, as long as you don't overdo it, and don't neglect yourself. Have enough time off for play (without overdoing it).

May 11, 2011 (Apr 20, 2011 to Jun 10, 2011)

ㄹ * ㄹ

A time of gentle revolution. You can make excellent progress in changing your life now. Innovate, redefine yourself, stretch your limits, and really express your individuality. You may become incredibly original and inspired, and can meet life's challenges very effectively. It's time to develop a new you.

If you have been wanting to move forward in a new endeavor, this is a great time to do so. Your originality, inventiveness, and independence are augmented now, so use them, and they will develop further.

May 12, 2011 (Apr 21, 2011 to Jun 12, 2011)

ㄹ □ ㄹ

If you feel frustrated or restricted in your career or the way others see and treat you, it's because now is the time to reconsider what you're doing, and how you present yourself to the world. Be careful not to burn any bridges, but instead plan carefully and effectively your next moves. It's time to break free of old conditioning and pictures of who you were supposed to be when you grew up. Move forwards consciously from now on towards truer goals.

Make changes in your personal and home life, too, if there is the need for them to fit you better. Allow yourself to belong to your life, by making it your own.

Jun 3, 2011 (Apr 11, 2011 to Jul 28, 2011)

Ψ Δ ✂ (no partile)

Here your mind can soar. Your creative imagination, vision, aesthetic sensitivity, and poetic mind are greatly enhanced. You may, however, forget the insight or image you just had, so keep a notebook with you and jot things down right away. You are also psychically receptive and better at expressing yourself. In any case, open your mind and learn how to live at a higher level of consciousness.
